

District Capacity Project

District Participants

- ★ Current District (also shaded in blue)
- ★ Past District

Berkshire Hills Regional
1,307 students

- 25.1% low-income
- 15.3% students with disabilities
- 2.2% ELLs

Northampton
2,657 students

- 30.4% low-income
- 23.1% students with disabilities
- 3.6% ELLs

Springfield
25,479 students

- 87.3% low-income
- 19.5% students with disabilities
- 17.2% ELLs

Boylston Elementary
303 students

- 8.3% low-income
- 12.1% students with disabilities
- 2.4% ELLs

Providence, RI
23,867 students

- 79% low-income
- 15% students with disabilities
- 24% ELLs

Fall River
10,123 students

- 78.3% low-income
- 19.1% students with disabilities
- 7.8% ELLs

Leominster
6,057 students

- 47.5% low-income
- 20.1% students with disabilities
- 5.6% ELLs

Burlington
3,508 students

- 12.5% low-income
- 13.2% students with disabilities
- 2.7% ELLs

Revere
7,170 students

- 77.8% low-income
- 14.7% students with disabilities
- 16.0% ELLs

Malden
6,570 students

- 59.3% low-income
- 15.8% students with disabilities
- 19.0% ELLs

Boston
53,530 students

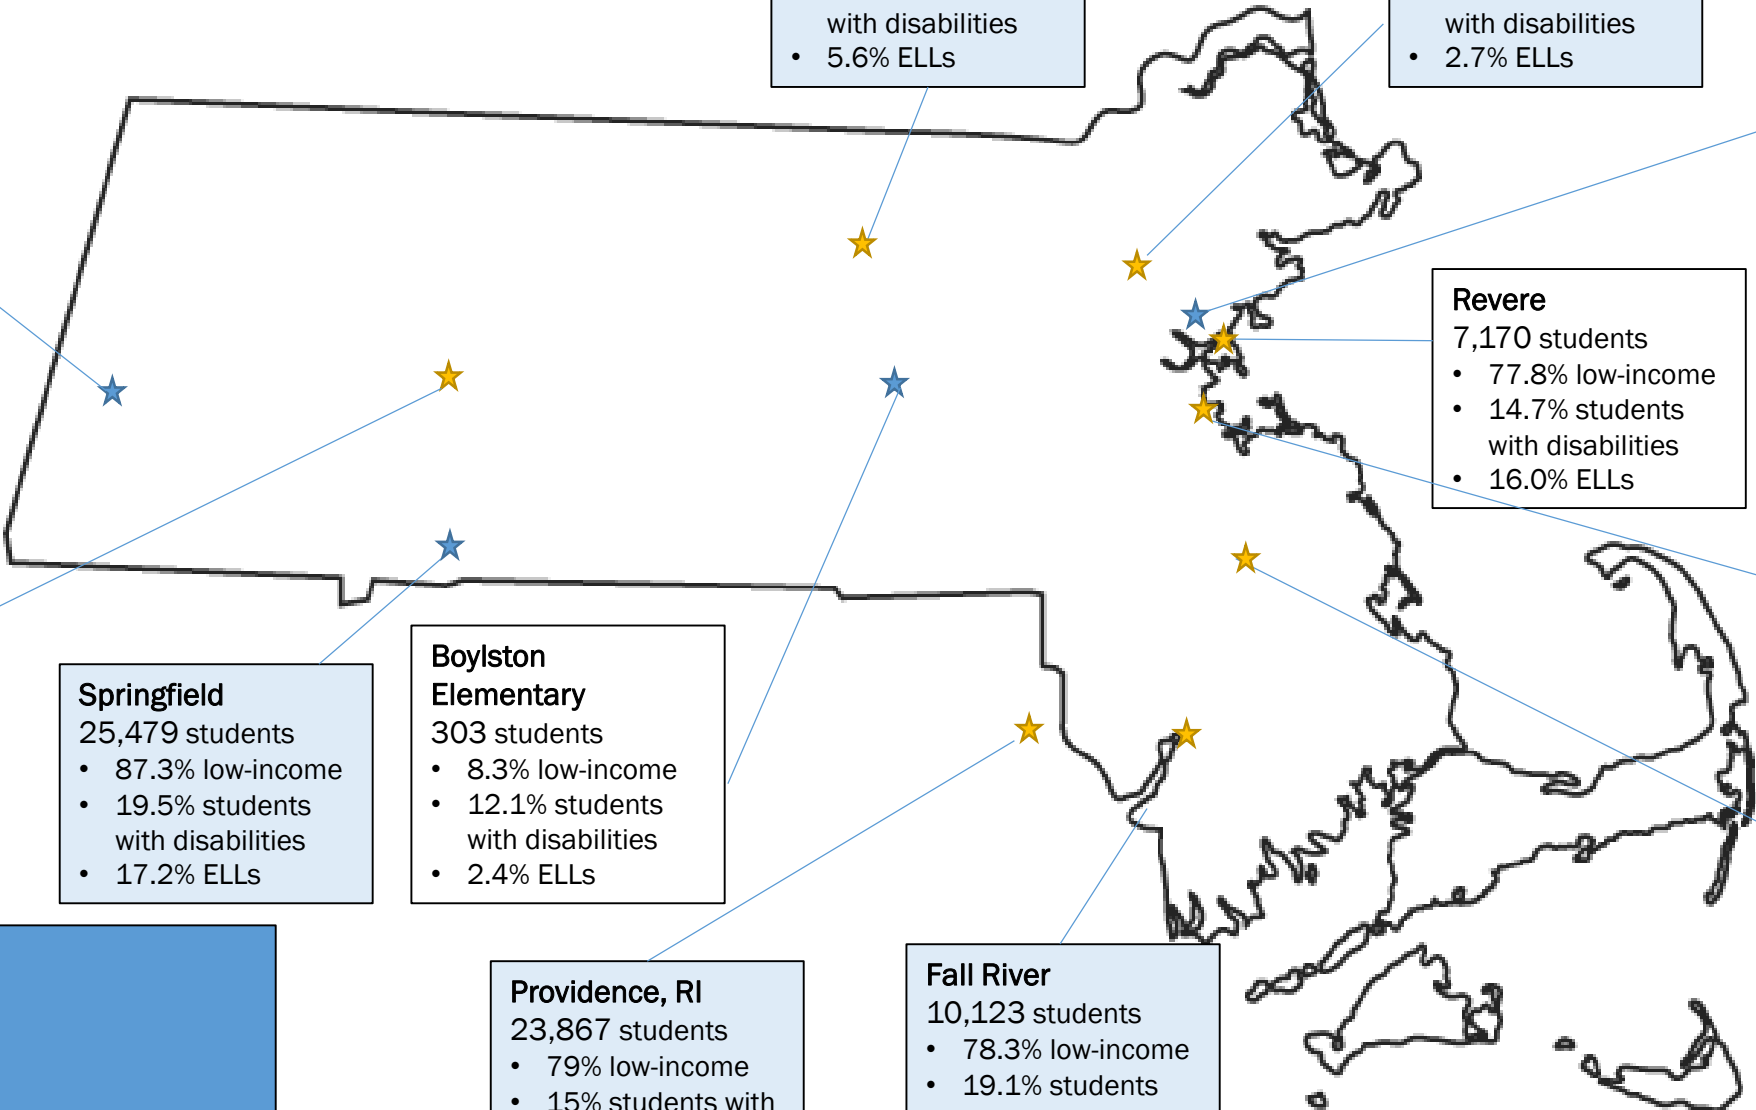

- 77.7% low-income
- 19.5% students with disabilities
- 29.8% ELLs

Brockton
17,102 students

- 80.7% low-income
- 13.6% students with disabilities
- 20.0% ELLs

All DCP Districts
157,673 students

- 75% low-income
- 18% students with disabilities
- 21% ELLs

Data reflects 2014-15 enrollment. Massachusetts data from MA Department of Elementary and Secondary Education; data for Providence from RI Department of Education