History

- Originated in the 1970s as a mediation/reconciliation technique
  - Albert English
- Restorative Justice vs. Practices
- Worldwide tool for communication:
  - Faith-based
  - Mental Health
  - Education

Definition

Restorative Practices:

- Explicit continuum of verbal strategies
- Strategies focus on building and restoring relationships
- Through positive relationships, misbehavior can be addressed/rectified

Why Restoration?

CRISIS IN RELATIONSHIPS & SYSTEMS

- Fragmented and/or “imbalanced” adult structures
- Overwhelmed mental health agencies and child welfare systems
- Diversity of cultures and lifestyles are “tolerated”
- Flooded justice system (school-to-prison pipeline)
- Systematic discrimination and racism

Educational Mind-Shift

- Teacher-student construct has changed over time

Exclusionary | Inclusionary

Homogeneous groups | Heterogeneous individuals

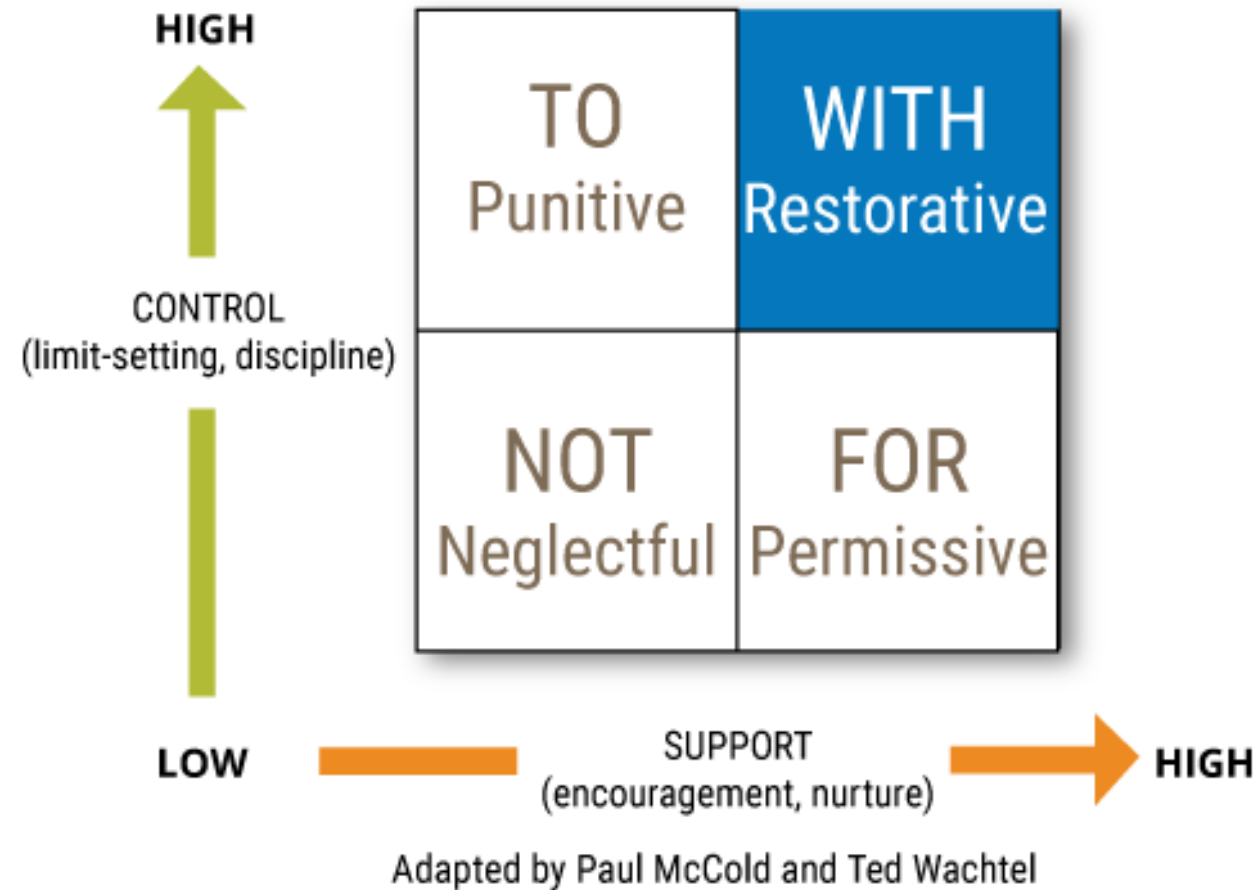

- Education demands teachers with astounding skills

Supporting Framework

- ✓ We establish relationships WITH students by:
  - Allowing room for mistakes
  - Utilizing empathetic language
- ✓ We establish relationships WITH students to:
  - Share mutual respect
  - Set attainable expectations to achieve a high level of control and support

Activity

Adapted by Paul McCold and Ted Wachtel

1. Which Quadrant(s) do you fall into? How so?

2. Which Quadrant(s) does your organization fall into? How so?

Essential Elements

Punitive vs. Restorative Approaches

Punitive (Traditional) Approach

Focus is on:

Rule breaking

Blame or guilt

Impersonal processes (delegation)

And, as a result;

Justice is directed towards offender and needs of those affected are ignored

The unmet needs behind the behavior are ignored

Accountability = 's being punished

Restorative Approach

Focus is on:

Harm done to individual or community

Responsibility and problem-solving

Repair, apology, and reparation (humanization)

And, as a result;

The needs of all stakeholders affected are addressed

The unmet needs behind the behavior are addressed

Accountability = 's making things right

“Change is a process rather than an event.”
